

U.S. Embassy Asuncion, Paraguay
Security Message for U.S. Citizens – Roadblocks In Asuncion
22 October 2015

Intermittent roadblocks in Asuncion are being reported by local authorities. The demonstrators responsible are protesting against tax increases.

Considering various intermittent roadblocks are being reported, there may be issues with local traffic in the area.

Intermittent roadblocks locations being reported:

Mariscal Lopez and Madame Lynch

Eusebio Ayala and Madame Lynch

Defensores del Chaco y Fernando de la Mora

Although these demonstrations associated with the intermittent roadblocks are expected to be peaceful, they could turn confrontational and escalate into violence. You should avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations. Review your personal security plans; remain aware of your surroundings, including local events; and monitor local news stations for updates. Maintain a high level of vigilance and take appropriate steps to enhance your personal security and follow instructions of local authorities.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Paraguay enroll in the State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program \(STEP\). STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.

Regularly monitor the State Department's website, where you can find current Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and the Worldwide Caution. Read the Country Specific Information for Paraguay.
